I struggle with pride when I run across people who are trying to impress the worship pastor. I'm sure you've met those people, the ones that burst into song when you're around or who start air drumming and when you ask "do you play the drums?" they look surprised so they can pretend like they werent just air drumming awkwardly secretly hoping you would ask them that.

By Rev. Wu Li. Supposedly long ago in a land that might be far, far away, the notoriously cryptic oracle at Delphi proclaimed Socrates the wisest dude in all the kingdom, explaining in its self-important way, because he alone knew that he did not know. Puzzled by the always confusing oracle which seemed to delight in pompously spouting meaningless nonsense to the world at large, Socrates merely ...

We should be immensely grateful that Paul understood the central importance of grace in our salvation. If he had not, the all-important mission to the Gentiles would have faded away as a momentary breeze in an otherwise stiflingly hot day dominated by sin, the flesh, and our hopeless attempts to justify our own selfish actions.

Edit 2/2017: This post was originally written in 2015. I've stated it below but want to reiterate here at the top: this is not political commentary. This is also not systematic theology. What this is is a sampling of bible verses (a list! which by its very nature means scripture taken out of context!) to show that issues related to how we treat foreigners (immigrants, refugees, asylum seekers ...
